50 YEARS OF TOURISM

Torremolinos is a legendary international tourist destination since the 50s, providing travelers with the experience of a modern city that keeps at the same time the Andalusian charm of its past as an old fishing village and milling industry.

Leader of the tourist boom in the 60s and 70s, this city seduces with its large beaches bathed by the blue waters of the Mediterranean Sea, a mild climate throughout the year, and an exquisite cuisine. Its cosmopolitan and multicultural atmosphere attracted people from all over the world, even Brigitte Bardot and Frank Sinatra left something of themselves in corners full of history.

From the heart of the Costa del Sol, Torremolinos lives facing the sea and protected by the mountains, offering sea experiences and pictures of light.

LIGHT, SEA AND LIFE

GATEWAY TO THE COSTA DEL SOL

Torremolinos, near Málaga, stands as a strategic point of departure to visit the most attractive places of Andalusia.

Located in southern Spain, this city of almost 70.000 inhabitants offers an enviable climate all the year round, with mild winter and a warm summer.

A privileged destination, Torremolinos offers much more than sun and beach. Torremolinos is culture, sport hiking, pescaíto frito tapas, fun, relax, and above all, Torremolinos is a place where, whatever happens, the sun is always shining.

A full-page background image showing two couples running joyfully on a sandy beach. In the foreground, a man with a beard and sunglasses carries a woman piggyback. They are both smiling and looking towards the right. In the background, another couple is also running and laughing. The beach is wide and sandy, with gentle waves visible in the distance under a bright, cloudy sky.

TORREMOLINOS IS AN EMOTION, A STATE OF MIND

Torremolinos is a emotion, a state of mind, a place where everybody feels comfortable, because, for generations, this city is kind, open and tolerant. Torremolinos has always been and will be an oasis of freedom and respect.

TORREMOLINOS IS CULTURE

THE STREET, A GREAT STAGE

MONTHLY EVENTS

The city is an open stage, an open-air art center. Its squares and streets hold music, festivals, food and art shows, that place Torremolinos at the forefront of the cultural movement.

NIGHTLIFE

Its well known nightlife is part of the historical identity of Torremolinos and its essence as a tourist destination. Bars, pubs and clubs available for every visitor, to live their holiday their own way. Torremolinos is a fresh, young and dynamic city.

PLAZA COSTA DEL SOL

Plaza Costa del Sol is the brand new heart of the historic center of Torremolinos. A new space for the delight of pedestrians, backbone of its main shopping streets.

FEEL THE TRADITIONS

SAN MIGUEL PILGRIMAGE AND FAIR

Torremolinos remains committed to its traditions. The city celebrates the most important urban pilgrimage of Andalusia in September every year, followed by the fair. A road on foot or by ox carts to the hermitage of San Miguel, a unique show of the joy and hospitality of its people.

EASTER

As in the rest of Andalusia, Easter is one of the tourist attractions of Torremolinos, with processional parades on Palm Sunday, Holy Tuesday and Thursday, and Easter Sunday.

VIRGEN DEL CARMEN FAIR

Every July 16th, the traditional fishermen's quarter called La Carihuela celebrates the Virgen del Carmen festival. As patron of the fishermen, the virgin is paraded both through the streets and round the coast.

HERITAGE

Torremolinos has been base for human settlements from the Paleolithic, so there are plenty of prehistoric caves, as well as sites from the Roman Age. Its important milling industry gives the city its name, and that is attested by the Nazari beacon tower known as Torre Pimentel or Torre de los Molinos, among others spots.

PARKS AND BOTANIC GARDENS

A green city, with open spaces, playgrounds and botanic parks, born inspired by the pine forest of Los Manantiales, lung of the city. The Parque de la Batería stands as a family leisure and recreation area, complemented with the Botanical Garden Molino de Inca, an amazing garden with plants and trees, where water features play a main role.

SPORTS & ADVENTURE BREAKS

IN MOTION

The sport area or Villa Deportiva is used as international training center in the disciplines of athletics or water sports. Torremolinos also has facilities for water and sailing sports all: waterski, surf, bodysurf, paddle surf, rowing, kayak and sailing

GOLF AND HORSE RIDING

The golf course of the internationally acknowledged Miguel Ángel Jiménez is perfect to play golf, while riding lovers consider the Club Hípico as one of the best facilities in the Costa del Sol.

HIKING

The natural landscape Montes de Torremolinos and the rural complex Cañada del Lobo offer hiking trails of low and medium difficulty, within the frameworks of Gran Senda de Málaga and Senda Litoral.
